Application for Employment Guidance Notes

Please complete all sections of the Application Form. The notes below provide guidance on particular sections:

All candidates are required to complete section 10 of the application form. If you have a criminal record, it will not necessarily bar you from working with us. It will depend upon the nature of the position that you are applying for and the circumstances and background of your offences.

Posts which require a Criminal Records Bureau Disclosure Check

If you are applying for a post that requires a CRB check, you must declare all convictions on your application form irrespective of whether they have subsequently been spent. For these posts the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) (Amendment) Order 2001 applies. If successful during the interview process, a Standard or Enhanced Disclosure check will be undertaken depending upon the nature of the post applied for.

The CRB Code of Practice is available on request.

Section 2 – Present Employment Details

Give details of your present or most recent employment or your current role – please be clear. If you have more than one job please include them and use a continuation sheet if necessary.

Section 3 – Previous Employment

Please detail your full employment history with the most recent first. Please ensure this history is listed by month and year. This will show us the full breadth of your experience. You should include any voluntary work or work in some other type of role.

It is necessary to account for all your time since leaving full-time education. Please use the last section to account for any gaps in your employment history – again by month and year e.g. if you were unemployed or taking a break for family reasons, please give dates and details here.

Please give details of any other employment you have had such as work experience, Government Training Schemes, casual or holiday work.

Plymouth Community Homes reserve the right to contact any previous employer.

Section 8 - References

References will be sought for all shortlisted candidates before interview, if applicants have indicated that immediate reference can be made to each referee.

One of the references must be from your current or most recent employer. If you are a school leaver, unemployed or a returner to the workplace, then this may not always be possible. In these circumstances you may give an alternative referee e.g. personal or education. However, these referees must be able to comment on your skills and abilities in relation to the post. If necessary, you may be asked to provide more suitable referees.

If you are applying for a post which involves contact with children or vulnerable adults and are working or have worked in these areas on a paid or voluntary basis your current or past employer will be asked about:

- a) disciplinary offences relating to children or vulnerable adults including any for which the penalty is time expired (i.e. where a warning could no longer be taken into account in any new disciplinary hearing for example).
- b) whether you have been the subject of any protection concerns, and if so, the outcome of any enquiry or disciplinary procedure.

If references do not cover at least the last five years of employment, it may be necessary to seek more than two referees or educational/personal referees where applicants have not been in work. Further details may be required from you during the interview process.

The intention of references is to give the panel additional, unbiased information. Where you have given a referee who is a relative, an alternative referee will be sought.

For internal applicants, an additional referee could be another manager, representative from an agency, or colleague who has worked closely with you.

Internal candidates moving between posts in Plymouth Community Homes need provide only one written reference from their employing department.

References or testimonials provided directly by the candidate are not accepted nor are open references for example "To Whom it May Concern".

Section 9 – Knowledge, Skills and Experience

Please give examples from your past employment, interests, school or college life, voluntary work or life experiences which demonstrate how you meet the requirements listed on the Person Specification.

The Person Specification contains a list of standards we would expect the ideal person for the job to meet.

The essential criteria are considered absolutely crucial to the job and desirable criteria are considered beneficial. The panel will select candidates for interview by considering each application and looking for evidence to show that candidates meet the criteria.

For some jobs there may be a number of criteria and for others there may be just one or two - it doesn't matter how many there are. What is important to us is that you demonstrate how you fulfil each of the criteria.

If you are a disabled person and because of your impairment cannot fulfil certain items on the person specification; you can use this section to provide details of how you can meet the requirements in an alternative or adjusted way.

It is quite acceptable to use headings or bulleted lists so that your evidence corresponds to the relevant item on the person specification. It is important that you do not just make statements – you need to provide evidence.

Section 11 – Further Information

- i) Guaranteed Interview Scheme
If you are a disabled person, eligible as a New Deal Applicant and can fulfill the essential criteria identified on the Person Specification, you will be guaranteed an interview.
- ii) Job Share
Job sharing is where two people share the duties and responsibilities of one full-time job. The job can be divided in a number of ways to suit the circumstances of the employee and the employer.

The application pack you receive will state whether the post is/is not suitable for job share. If the post is suitable please tick the box to indicate whether you wish to job share.
